

Painting

I developed this series of painting for Reader's Digest to be used as artwork for a collectible set of coasters. The theme was famous lighthouses, to be used as a continuity program (one coaster given for each book in the series).

