

Textile Design

I designed this quilt for one of Bookspan's book club's "Crossings". They wanted the bible verse "Love is patient" incorporated into a design, and they had a pink/purple color scheme in mind. The photograph below is of the final product. I have also included some other designs for a different book club

